Foodtown of Cold Spring Celebrates Grand Re-Opening

Fresh products and new departments add excitement to the community.

Cold Spring, NY, Iselin, NJ (May 30, 2024) – PSK Supermarkets, an employee-owned company and member of the leading retailer owned grocery co-op Allegiance Retail Services, proudly announces the grand re-opening of Foodtown of Cold Spring, New York, that took place on Friday, May 17, 2024. The supermarket was recently enlarged and renovated. The expanded store now features brand new departments and offers freshly made products daily.

“We are excited to invite the Cold Spring community to stroll the aisles of our newly remodeled store boasting a broader range of fresh foods and squeezed juices, grab and go meals, a fresh seafood and sushi department, and traditional and private label brands. Our goal to elevate the grocery shopping experience is especially evident in the number of foods being prepared daily,” said Noah Katz, President of PSK Supermarkets at the grand re-opening.

The newly remodeled store introduces:

- Fresh Food Service: The store now offers warm bread right out of the oven, as well as freshly squeezed orange juice daily.
- Brand New Departments: Shoppers can now enjoy the new seafood and sushi department, select from the expanded produce department, and choose flowers from many bouquets in the floral department.
- Robust Deli Section: The store now makes ready-to-eat meals at the deli every day.

“The emphasis on fresh food speaks to the level of care that we have for our shoppers,” explained Katz.

Conveniently located near the charming downtown area, Foodtown of Cold Spring encourages a warm and welcoming shopping experience for locals in the community. The reopening is more than just another place to buy food – it is an integral part of the Cold Spring community.

“This grand re-opening reflects the company’s commitment to serving its community and evolving to meet the changing needs and preferences of its customers,” said Joseph Fantozzi, President and Chief Operating Officer of Allegiance Retail Services.

Foodtown of Cold Spring is located at 49 Chestnut Street in Cold Spring, NY. It is open seven days a week from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. Foodtown of Cold Spring’s phone number is (845) 265-0085, and their email is Store600@psksupermarkets.com.
